JETT-WHITE TRIAL.

Jury Is Selected For the Second Time--All But One Farmer.

Dilatory Motions of Defense Are Overruled--B. J. Ewen Arrested So as to Be Given Protection.

Cynthiana, Ky., July 29.—Court opened Monday for the second day of the trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White for the murder of J. B. Narcum. At 4:35 p. m. the following jury was accepted by both sides: Thomas Northcutt, Berry McNeese, Jasper King, J. W. Slade, D. E. McCauley, Walter Jennings, Paton Kitchen, W. F. Berry, John Renaker, D. E. Fisher, Martin Van Hook, Benjamin Tate. All are farmers except Northcutt, who is a bookkeeper.

The defense filed a demurrer to the indictment, but it was overruled. The defendant waived formal arraignment and pleaded not guilty. The arrest of Capt. B. J. Ewen is now known to be the result of a complete understanding between the civil and the military authorities. Capt. Ewen came here as witness Saturday and returned to Lexington Sunday night, where he gave out an interview that he had been promised military protection and when such was declined he fled for his life and refused to return. Capt. Ewen stated in his interview at Lexington Sunday night that Cynthiana was full of witnesses for the defense and others from Jackson, Ky., and that witnesses for the commonwealth were in danger. Acting on this interview Judge Osborne had Ewen arrested on his return to Cynthiana last night, and he is still held in camp as a prisoner, in which capacity he can be protected to the fullest extent of the military power. Ewen understands why he was arrested and consented to the same. He feels more secure now than for months.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS

By Congestive Chill and Died in Few Hours.

Mrs. Emma P. Bates, wife of Archibald Bates, died of a congestive chill Tuesday night, at their home near Kelly. She was taken ill Monday, becoming unconscious in a short while, and remained in that condition until relieved by death.

Mrs. Bates was 87 years old and a native of Vermont. She moved with her husband from the North about 35 years ago and had since resided in the Kelly neighborhood. She is survived by a husband and two sons.

She was a Universalist. The interment took place in the family burying ground Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, services being held at the grave.

DEVOURS DOGS.

Strange Animal Shows Preference For Canine Meat.

A strange animal has been playing havoc with dogs, hogs and sheep west of town. One night this week the "varmint" attacked a dog belonging to Mr. P. C. Carter and killed it. No sooner was the dog dead than it was devoured by the strange animal, nothing but the head being left. Another dog in the same neighborhood was also killed and eaten. Several hogs and lambs were devoured in a like manner.

Some of Mr. Carter's family saw the animal, which seemed to be about the size of a large dog, but its body was much longer than that of an ordinary dog and its head very long and pointed.

Mr. Wilson Very Ill.

Mr. R. H. Wilson, of near Pembroke, is dangerously ill and it is feared he will not survive the week. He is suffering from some kidney affection.

BREATHITT TO RUN.

Republicans Say He Will Be Nominated Next Tuesday.

Figures in His Two Former Races for Circuit Judge.

The Republican convention for the Third Judicial District has been called to meet in this city Tuesday, August 4, to nominate a candidate for circuit judge and probably make a nomination also for commonwealth's attorney.

Republican leaders are authority for the statement that Judge James Breathitt will be nominated for judge by acclamation. The county mass conventions in the four counties are all expected to instruct for him to-morrow. It is said that Judge Breathitt is not a candidate, but will not decline a unanimous tender of the nomination. If for any reason he is not the nominee, the leaders say some one else will be, either Judge J. L. Landes or Mr. J. W. Dowder.

Judge Breathitt has made two races for circuit judge in the past, in one of which he was successful. For purposes of comparison, we give below the vote in the former contests. In 1895 Judge Breathitt ran against Judge Linn in a State campaign year and was elected by the following vote, majorities being given:

BREATHITT.	LINK.
Calloway	780
Christian	1242
Lyon	107
Trigg	25
Total	1,267
Majority	380

In 1897 Judge Breathitt was defeated by Judge Cook by the following vote:

COOK.	BREATHITT.
Calloway	573
Christian	3519
Lyon	744
Trigg	1137
Total	5973
Majority	887

The last race was made the year the county ticket was elected, when the hot local campaign caused the Republican vote to fall from 4,525 in 1896 to 3,519 in 1897, a decrease of more than 1,000 votes, in this county. The Republicans profess to be lieve that they can elect Judge Breathitt this year with the aid of the influences behind the State campaign.

The Democratic managers, however, feel great confidence in their ability to carry the district.

BADLY CRUSHED.

Well Known Farmer Victim of Serious Accident.

Mr. P. C. Carter, who lives just west of the city, was the victim of a very painful accident a few days ago. He was returning home from this place in a wagon, and was sitting on a large mortar box. The box overturned and Mr. Carter was thrown violently to the ground. The heavy box fell upon him, bruising his hip and leg in a frightful manner. He was taken to his home, where he has since been under the care of a physician.

HEAVY LOOSE SALE.

Hogshead Receipts Larger Than Those of Last Week.

Sales of tobacco on the breaks this week amounted to 117 hogsheads, and for this year 8,646 hogsheads. Receipts this week were 345 hogsheads. Receipts for the year, 10,525 hogsheads.

R. M. Woodridge & Co., had a heavy sale of the loose weed on the floor Tuesday and prices were very good. The loose sale was made up largely of the lower grades of tobacco.

WILSON WON

In The Redhot Mayoralty Campaign at Bowling Green.

Bowling Green, Ky., July 29.—Mr. George T. Wilson was to-day nominated by the Democrats for Mayor of this city over E. H. Porter by a majority of 101 votes. It was one of the hottest party fights ever made in Bowling Green. The defeated candidate's friends accept the result goodnaturedly, and will be for the ticket. All the Councilmen on the Wilson ticket won. Mr. Porter made the fight on the reform plan and had many of the Christian people with him.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union held an all day prayer for the Lord to direct the result. The primary was surprisingly quiet. Wilson is a young man and is proprietor of one of the largest dry goods stores in the city. Mr. Porter is a lawyer and a member of the county court. He was for years editor of a newspaper here and was once public printer. He is a member of one of the most prominent families in the state.

WON FROM HENDERSON.

Local Team Downed the "Hens" at Every Point.

Hopkinsville won three of the four games played here with Henderson this week and the local nine was in a fair way to "make it four" yesterday afternoon when we received the last report, before preparing to go to press.

In Monday's game the score was 19 to 1. Tuesday's resulted in 11 to 3, and Wednesday's score was 11 to 10. The visitors were outplayed all along the line.

The Hopkinsville club will go to Clarksville this morning for a series of three games—to-day, to-morrow and Monday. Monday night they will return here, accompanied by the Clarksville team, and we will have three games at Athletic park, beginning Tuesday afternoon.

This makes five straight wins from the Henderson team, as the local nine captured the two games played at Henderson Sunday. The Hopkinsville team has been doing some good work recently and if kept up, will soon give it at least third place in the League. The standing of the League teams is given for the week ending July 23. (Official July 23.)

	P.	W.	L.	Pct
Cairo	63	38	55	.633
Henderson	60	34	26	.567
Clarksville	57	30	28	.526
Jackson	57	30	27	.526
Hopkinsville	40	24	36	.400
Paducah	58	22	36	.379

Hopkinsville has gained about 45 points since this table was made up, while Henderson has sustained a corresponding loss.

Farmer's Suicide.

Clarksville, July 27.—John Farley, a respected farmer of this county, committed suicide this morning at his home in New Providence. The instrument used was a shotgun. Seated in a chair, Mr. Farley placed the muzzle of the gun over his heart, saying the load of his live and fell dead. He was 40 years old and leaves a wife and several children. Dependence on account of poor health and grief at the loss of a brother recently supposed to have unbalanced his mind.

HIS WORD FOR IT.

No Need for Hopkinsville People To Do Any Guessing.

No need for Hopkinsville people to do any guessing for relief from bad backs, urinary weaknesses and disorders and other symptoms of kidney troubles. A man whom you can believe says that Doan's Kidney Pills will reach all such cases.

U. H. Eades, of the firm of Eades & Davis, proprietors of the Coal Yard on Seventh street and the L. & N. R. R., who lives at 402 East Seventh street, says: "I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and so highly recommended by persons who had used them that I went to Thomas & Trahera's drug store, procured a box and gave them a thorough trial. I had suffered for a long time with a heavy pain across the small of my back, sharp and acute at times. When I caught cold it always settled in my back, and there followed a weakness of the kidneys which was exasperated especially at night. I tried various remedies but none of them gave anything like as satisfactory results as I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I am pleased to say that they brought me great relief. I have recommended the pills and will continue to do so to all my friends and acquaintances."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The August National.

American cities present the most remarkable feature of the rapid growth of this continent in population and riches. There has been nothing like it in the whole previous history of the world. The stories of Terre Haute, Columbus, Youngstown and Harrisburg, crisply told and fully illustrated in the National Magazine for August, drive this fact home in the mind of even the least observant. These articles tell how these cities began, what they are and what they are doing. Charles Ferguson's article on the Rise of Free Cities Under the Industrial Order, in the same number, makes clear the larger meanings of this rapid growth in America. The August National contains also six brilliant short stories, a dozen illustrated articles on various phases of American life, the usual chatty department on Affairs at Washington, Our Army and Navy, and Timely Topics of the Stage, Note and Comment and Let's Talk it Over, reflecting the thoughts and deeds of men and women the world over. The illustrations of this number are more than usually numerous and attractive.

TO THE FARMERS OF CHRISTIAN COUNTY.

Please don't forget that the Farmers' Insurance Co. of Bowling Green, Ky., was incorporated for the purpose of giving you cheaper insurance and just as safe insurance as any company doing business in this state.

For nearly fifty years we have been doing this.

We have kept to the pockets of the farmers of South western Kentucky (the difference between our rates and rates of other companies) several thousands of dollars which we have given to our Eastern corporation for the same purpose in that we give them, if we had not been in business.

These statements being true why not patronize your home company? A company that has never failed from its organization to date to pay the face of its policy in case of a total loss.

A company that has three-fourths clause in its policies. A company that insures nothing but farm property, therefore we have no one risk insured where another one can burn it up, making it impossible for us to have an epidemic of losses, which is the cause of so many companies going into liquidation.

Please bear in mind our plan of insurance is not a new one. In Philadelphia over 150 years ago a Mutual or Co-operative company commenced business and is running to this day.

The oldest fire insurance companies in fourteen of the leading states of our union are Mutual or Co-operative companies. We are glad to say that one of these states is old Kentucky. We have in our state nineteen companies which have been running an average time of twenty years each. The oldest one of these companies commenced business over sixty-four years ago. The next over forty-eight years ago. There are nearly two thousand of them in America. In New York there are 136; in Ohio, 113; in Pennsylvania, 238; in Illinois, 204; in Kansas, 22; in Nebraska, 70; and in Iowa, 185.

I will soon be able to print a list which will show the correct number in every state of our Union. According to the above statements which are true, and I challenge any agent to prove that they are not true, does it not show you that our plan of insurance is no new scheme, which some agents are trying to make you believe?

If you want good insurance for a much less rate than is charged by other companies, secure of our agents.

P. C. JESSEE, Secretary. S. G. BUCKNER, Agt., Hopkinsville, Ky. E. J. MURPHY, Agt., Pembroke, Ky.

Other good agents are wanted. A good contract will be given to that agent who can devote his entire time to our business.

The general faculty numbers nearly fifty professors and instructors.

COUNTY APPOINTEES receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain twelve months, traveling expenses.

The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The legislature appropriated $50,000 for a college home for young women and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. The latter is completed and in use, the former will be ready for occupancy in October.

Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply. Last year the matriculation list was 604.

Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering and instruction in science.

Specialists with necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science.

The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of College, is the only institution in the commonwealth doing in any proper sense, university work.

The completion of the college home for young women will provide facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences, including bath rooms and room for physical culture. It will be heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is afforded to them of a thorough education in Classics, Modern Languages, Literature, Science, Mathematics, Logic, Metaphysics, History and Political Economy. No other institution in the State offers the advantages for the education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

For catalogue, methods of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study, and terms of admission, apply to the address: JAMES K. PATTERSON, P. D., L. L. D., Or to D. C. FRAZER, Bus. Manager, Lexington, Ky. Fall term begins Sept. 7, 1903.

A LEGAL EXPERIENCE.

Criminal Lawyer Made and Won a Bet with the Bench.

Justice F. E. Duneson, of Des Moines, Ia., gained some experience and incidentally lost one dollar to a prominent criminal lawyer recently, says the Green Bag. The lawyer dropped into the justice court one day.

"Are you ready to take up the Ada Hazelwood case?" asked the court. "Didn't know it was set for today," replied the attorney. "I thought it was down for tomorrow."

"No; it was set for today, and the witnesses are here."

"Well, let's put it off until tomorrow; we are not ready," pleaded the lawyer.

"Can't do that," ruled the court. "We'll take the state's testimony today, and you can put your witnesses on tomorrow."

"Well, you'll have to do it."

"But you a dollar you don't take the state's testimony," said the lawyer.

"Guess we will if I say so."

"Is the bet good?"

"Yes; I'll take it."

"And the money was put up."

"The witnesses for the state in the case against Ada Hazelwood will rise and be sworn," ordered the court.

"No, you don't," retorted the lawyer. "We wait examination and will go to the grand jury. Give me the two dollars."

And the court turned over the money.

SURPRISING THE DOCTOR.

Case of Scottish Shrewdness Over-matched by Irish Wit.

Scottish shrewdness is occasionally over-matched by Irish wit. The handful of people who inhabit a certain little town in the Atlantic, off the coast of New Jersey, enjoy so much health and so little wealth, that there is no doctor in the spot. In rare cases of emergency a physician is brought in a boat from the nearest village on the mainland.

On one occasion, according to London Tit-Bits, some plunderers who were obliged to summon the doctor found that he had gone to Dublin on business. As the case was urgent, they invoked the services of another practitioner. This gentleman was a Scotchman, with the proverbial caniness of his race, and he declined to undertake the voyage unless he received his fee—a golden sovereign—in advance.

There was no help for it, and the money was paid. The physician went to the island and attended to the case. But when he required for a boat to take him away he found that not a boatman on the island would ferry him back again for any less consideration than two golden sovereigns in advance.

The doctor had to part with the two sovereigns and to admit that he had been beaten at his own game.

Cures Sciatica.

Rev. W. L. Riley, L. L. D. of Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under vigorous treatment, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, the first application giving my first relief, and the second, entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation. 25c, 50c and $1 at Bardwick's."

Murder and Suicide.

A man identified as Christian Weiss, of Albany, N. Y., shot and killed an unknown woman in the Morton House, New York, and committed suicide.

What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Purifiers does it.

Result of Explosion.

Six persons were killed by an explosion at the Rupert Ice Plant, in New York.

Diphtheria relieved in twenty minutes. Almost miraculous. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug store.

Records Lowered.

The automobile records for from one to fifteen miles were lowered at the Empire City trotting track.

L. N. Clerk Dead.

Mr. Emory C. Johnson, general clerk of the passenger department of the L. & N., died Monday morning after a long illness.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Tex. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured of it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe I could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me."

Dead in Paducah Hospital.

C. W. Murchison, a well known Illinois Central railroad engineer, was found dead in the hospital at Paducah.

The Perfect Liver Medicine.

Mrs. M. A. Jolly, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it. Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of a fever producing poison. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. Sold at R. C. Hardwick's."

Prominent Merchant Dead.

Mr. Herman Straus, one of the most prominent merchants of Louisville, died suddenly Monday morning in Europe.

Heartburn.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicating that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn may be avoided. For sale by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

Death of Railroad President.

F. J. Kimball, president of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, died at his summer home at Readnor, Pa., after a month's illness.

About eighteen months ago Mr. W. S. Mangin, of Albany, N. Y., widely known in trade circles as the representative of the Albany Chemical Co., was suffering from a protracted attack of diarrhoea. He tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," he says, and obtained immediate relief. I cheerfully recommend this medicine to those similarly afflicted." Sold by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

The contract for the erection of "The New Kentucky House" at St. Louis has been let to Caldwell & Drake, who are building several other buildings at the fair. The exhibit Association has raised $30,000 of the $100,000 to be raised.

A mistake was made by a lynching party near Savannah, Ga., a few days ago and an innocent negro was lynched. He was mistaken for Ed Claus, a negro who assaulted Miss Susie Johnson, a school teacher. He protested his innocence and begged for time to prove an alibi and since he was put to death it has been found that the real Ed Claus is still at large and that the unknown man lynched was indeed innocent, although the girl identified him as her assailant.

Beware of Omiments For Catarrh That Contains Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surface. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. We are sorry to see Prof. Livingston McCartney going into politics. He is every inch a gentleman and one of the most accomplished teachers in the state, but has never been identified with his career here and at Henderson as superintendent of the city schools. He came here from Nebraska and brought with him some ideas about school books and school discipline that caused much complaint in the Hopkinsville schools, though Prof. McCartney, backed by an indulgent board, labored hard to reconcile the patrons to his ideas. After Prof. McCartney became "acclimated," he himself realized that Southern people are not yet ready for Northern methods and "down East" books, some of them filled with slanders on Southern people. Prof. Jas. H. Fuqua is one of the best school men in Kentucky, who has spent all his life in the state, and there would be no risk to run in his election.

Bro. Glenn, of the Madisonville Graphic, says he is unable to make up his mind whether to vote for N. B. Hays or W. M. Beckner for attorney general. Bro. Glenn's mind has balked on the easiest proposition in State politics this year. Hays, the gallant mountain Democrat, clean, honest and commanding the respect of even his political opponents, is a man whom every Democrat should take pleasure in supporting. On the other hand, to put it mildly, Judge Beckner is the weakest man on the Republican ticket.

The Courier-Journal, Fulton Leader, Paducah Register and Paducah News-Democrat, Owensboro Messenger and Braidenburg Messenger are among the Democratic papers that have not yet placed the State tickets at their "massheads." They are acting in a sensible manner, the people have been on a political strain over the State ticket for nearly a year already and are tired of politics. It is a good idea to give them a brief respite until the campaign opens in earnest.

The Rev. Robert J. Burdette, more widely, if not better known as Bob Burdette, the humorist, says: "Moses was rich beyond all estimation, but we think of him only as a friend of God, not as a Morgan." There is a difference between Moses and Morgan which Mr. Burdette failed to mention. The former got water out of rocks and the latter got his rocks out of water.—Louisville Times.

The official toll killer has received a hurry order to proceed at once to Covington, Ky. In that city Wednesday Miss Gertha Steinforth was introduced to John W. Hillman and they, with Chas. Eberz and Miss Lula Mehlman, walked to a corner drug store to get some soda water. While on the street, Miss Steinforth, in a spirit of bravado, proposed that the party have a double wedding. All consented and they were married after midnight. Miss Mehlman's father refused to let his daughter return home when notified of the escape.

The second trial of Jett and White is in progress at Cynthiana. Capt. B. J. Ewen has told about the same story he did at Jackson and other witnesses have been found to corroborate him. The prosecution confidently expects to convict both men, and if the law is permitted to take its course, they may soon realize that justice, when public opinion demands it, can sometimes be both sure and swift.

Judge Jos. E. Robbins, of Mayfield, has gone to Georgetown to preside at the Calhoun Powers trial, which begins next Monday. Judge Robbins is by nature upright, honorable and fair, and Powers is assured of an impartial trial.

ELECTING A POPE.

The Catholic conclave of cardinals to choose a successor to Pope Leo XIII will meet to-day to organize and 62 of the 64 cardinals are already in Rome to take part in the election. One of the adventures is too feeble to attend and the other is on the sea en route from Australia and cannot reach Rome until August 20, by which time it is expected the election will be over. Only one of the 64 cardinals is an American, Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore. He is said to favor Cardinal Vannutelli for Pope. One of the 62 men in the conclave will be chosen, Oreglia, Vannutelli, Rampolla, Stampa, Gotti and Dipietro being the leading candidates. The last named is said to be gaining favor as a compromise candidate.

The cardinals are required to go into executive session and remain together day and night, absolutely shut off from communication with the outside world, until an election results. Each cardinal is kept in a cell at night and Cardinal Vannutelli drew number 13, which has been taken as a bad omen by the superstitious.

Cardinal Rampolla has the advantage of being the dead Pope's personal choice for the succession. The last election of a Pope was in 1878 when Cardinal Pecci, afterwards Leo XIII, was chosen after a long deadlock, as a "dark horse." If another deadlock results, Cardinal Moran, of Australia, may arrive in time to break a tie. The sick cardinal is Celeste, of Palermo.

Hunter Doll, a railroad man from Knoxville, Tennessee, has sprung a sensation in Washington by marrying the rich widow of the late Senator Cushman K. Davis, of Minnesota. She is still "a strikingly handsome woman," though the papers are silent as to her age.

DOESN'T FAVOR LYNCHINGS.

But Gen. Lee Tells Why They So Very Often Occur.

Kansas City, July 29.—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, was in Kansas City this morning on his way to make an address at the Chautauqua assembly at Beloit, Kas. Speaking of lynching, Gen. Lee said: "I don't believe in lynching. Nobody believes in lynching. Be careful that you get that right. I don't believe in lynching. Nobody does. However, there is one of the objects attained by lynching that is seldom considered. If a man, way a negro, should assault a woman, perhaps some very dear relative of yours, he has got to be killed or arrested. "If the negro is arrested after his crime and brought into the court with his jury, it is lawyers, the woman, the one who has suffered already, is the principal. She must appear and perhaps under the cross-examination of lawyers relate even details of the assault, thus subjecting her to humiliation to an extreme degree."

With this statement, which Gen. Lee did not make as an argument, he ended his interview.

AWFUL CRASH.

That Killed And Wounded 80 People

Lowell, July 29.—An explosion destroyed the magazine of the United States Cartridge Co., located in Tewksbury, today caused the death of probably 25 persons and injured more than 60 others, set fire to a number of buildings in the vicinity and caused a general wreck of houses within a radius of half a mile.

The concussion was felt in Boston 40 miles away, and at Exeter, N. H., which is a greater distance from Lowell. At many points a score of miles distant window glass was shattered and other damage done. In some cases there were reports that there had been an earthquake.

KIDNEY TROUBLE CURED.

General Health Greatly Improved by Peruna.

MRS. M. J. DANLEY.

Mrs. M. J. Danley, Treasurer of the Rebecca Lodge, I. O. O. F., writes from 123 First street, N., Minneapolis, Minn.: "I was afflicted for several years with kidney trouble which became quite serious and caused me considerable anxiety. I spent hundreds of dollars trying to be cured, but nothing gave me any permanent relief until I tried Peruna. It took less than three months and only ten bottles to effect a permanent cure, but they were worth more than a hundred dollars to me. I am fully restored to health, know neither ache nor pain and enjoy life."—Mrs. M. J. Danley.

This experience has been repeated many times. We hear of such cases nearly every day.

Mrs. Danley had catarrh of the kidneys. As soon as she took the right remedy she made a quick recovery.

DEAD BODY FOUND

Near Railroad Track—Man Was Probably Murdered.

The dead body of Samuel Searcy, aged 30 years, of Central City, was found lying in a ditch on the side of the railroad, a few hundred yards north of Nortonville. The back of his head was crushed in and one arm was broken. It is not believed that he was struck by a train, but that he was the victim of foul play, and the coroner's jury returned their verdict.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Editors Make Side Trip in South Dakota.

Something About the People Who Met as Strangers and Parted as Friends.

Edgemont, S. D., July 21.—At Gardiner, Montana, the northern entrance to Yellowstone Park, the Government is constructing an ornamental and massive gateway marking the boundary of the Park. It is of granite brought from the national reserve and on either side the big gate is flanked by walls of masonry, surmounted by higher walls of great unwhewn logs, showing the wonderful timber resources of this mountain region.

The depot of the Northern Pacific is a very handsome little building, and between the depot and the entrance to the Park is a little court in which a small lake has been made, the road extended around both sides of the lake.

Resuming the journey by rail at Gardiner the editors of the National Editorial Association went northward to Livingston, Montana, 55 miles, where a stop of several hours had to be made. It was the junction point with the main line of the Northern Pacific and the sleepers were left here about eleven o'clock until they were picked up by an eastward bound train the next morning at 5 o'clock. But their occupants were a tired set of excursionists and they were wrapped in the arms of Morpheus throughout the long wait, oblivious of the fact that they were at a standstill. A few of the "Rough Riders" in the crowd came in about one o'clock and crawled into their "upper" as quietly as possible. They had been out inspecting the town and all united in the opinion that Livingston was the biggest little town they had found in the West. It has a population of about 4,000, but it is really a city of metropolitan pretensions, with all the signs of a city at that. All right saloons, dance halls and eating houses were running everywhere and there was no scarcity of "hot times" in town every night in the week.

Montana is a very large state and all day to-day we have been running through its changing scenery. As the higher mountains were left behind, some good grazing and farming lands were found and in the valley of the Yellowstone river, which flows into the Missouri, there are many fine ranches.

At Billings, Montana, we left the Northern Pacific and once more struck the great Burlington system, a road that has been very kind and liberal in all its dealings with the editors. During the day we passed the Crow Indian Reservation and saw many of the Indians about the railroad stations. About a mile from the railroad was pointed out to us the scene of Gen. Custer's massacre in 1876. A monument marks the spot where the brave Indian fighter met his fate in a battle in which not a white man lived to tell the tale. Running in a south-easterly direction, the road soon crossed the state line into Northern Wyoming, and Sheridan and other prosperous towns were passed. After dark we passed into South Dakota, and reached this place at 9 o'clock. Our party will divide here. We have been traveling in two sleepers, with 65 people in the party. It has been decided by the occupants of one car to make no further stops, but to proceed at once to Omaha and thence to their respective homes. The connection here necessitates a lay over of nearly a whole day to get to Deadwood in the Black Hills, 107 miles north, at which a stopover was planned when we left Omaha. This side trip will take three days, and only about 30 of the party decided to take it. The writer was one of those tired of sight seeing and so he took a reluctant leave of the Black Hills party and will start home tonight. The run to Omaha and on to St. Louis will be through another fine farming section extending for hundreds of miles. Running from one end of Nebraska to the other, we will see much of the state that has raised this year a wheat crop of 80,000,000 bushels. We will also pass through Lincoln, the capital of the state and the home of W. J.

TWO MORE WEEKS FOR THE WHIP AND LASH FINISH.

The contest for the honor of being the ugliest man in Christian county will close on August 15, now but little more than two weeks off. The race has come down to a close finish between several candidates who are energetically pushing their claims. The pictures of four of them are presented to-day and the most casual observer will see at a glance that all of them have strong claims to popular support.

Charlie Smithson until recently maintained a strong lead, but Aubrey Tuggle has forged to the front and with the assistance of his lady friends is still setting the pace at the present time. But the figures given do not mean that each candidate's strength is fully represented. Just as was done in our Popular Lady Contest last spring, the candidates this time are holding back their coupon strength for the final count. Just to what extent this is being done only the interested parties know.

The friends of all of the contestants who owe for the KENTUCKIAN, or who desire to subscribe in order to help their favorites, can by paying the subscription price get 20 votes for each dollar paid. Only a few days more remain to get in our votes. Don't put it off. The figures below show the present standing:

Bryan, who like Webster, Clay and Blaine was too great a man to be President.

Throughout the trip now bearing an end, we have been thrown with many most agreeable traveling companions from all parts of the country. Mr. M. F. Conley and his wife, from Louisville, Ky., have been our companions in the cars, in the coaches and at the hotels. Mr. Conley is editor of the Big Sandy News and is one of the brightest and most successful young journalists in Kentucky. Mrs. Conley is a worthy helpmate for a fine young fellow like Conley. Possessing many attractions, rare intelligence and a charming personality, she well sustained the reputation of Kentucky for the grace and beauty of her women.

We cannot close this letter without a mention of some of the other good people in the party. There were three exceptionally bright and charming Southern girls in the party—Misses Florence Dymond and Gertrude Callahan, of New Orleans, and Miss Kate Cashman, of Vicksburg. They were not the only pretty girls in evidence. The two beautiful Misses Greenhow, of Hornellsville, and Miss Laura Willard, of Booneville, daughter of the ex-President, Mr. G. A. Willard, made a trio of captivating New York girls who contributed much to the pleasure of all in the party.

The New York people traveled in their own special car chartered in New York and many of them were quite prominent in their state. Mr. W. J. Kline, of Amsterdam, who was accompanied by his wife and pretty daughter, Miss Laura, was in charge of the whole party and his courtesy and thoughtful attentions endeared him to all the members. We have never met a more agreeable gentleman than Mr. Kline. Another prominent man in the party was Mr. H. J. Knapp, of Auburn, a brother-in-law of Congressman Seneca E. Payne. A. O. Bunnell, former President of Danville; Jas. H. Smith, New Rochelle, and W. H. Greenhow, Hornellsville, were other leading journalists who were accompanied by their wives. Others in the party were Editors W. B. Collins, Gloversville, J. E. Klock, Kingston and Luke McHenry, Chittenango. They, with Geo. Woodruff, of Maine, and Jasper Collins, of Texas, made up the "Jolly Five," who were the life of the party in car "Onias."

In car "Crescent" there was a party of New England delegates representing several states, who made many friends among the Southerners in the car. Messrs. A. Vittum, Beverly, Mass.; Geo. C. Fairbanks, Natick, Mass.; Theo. P. Wilson, Winchester, Mass.; and Walter B. Frost, Providence, R. I., were accompanied by their wives, and Mr. L. W. Brewster, aged 73, one of the veterans of the national association, represented New Hampshire. No lady in the party made more warm friends than Mrs. Vittum, whose home is near Boston. She will long be most pleasantly remembered by the Southerners.

J. A. Richardson, of Indiana, organized "Richardson's Rough Riders" to take the rough end of things in a spirit of Southern chivalry and courteous forbearance. Jim Gillespie, Greenwood, Miss.; Carl L. Schuppe, Van Buren, Ark.; Frank Zins, St. Cloud, Minn.; Charlie Schweg, Plaquemine, La.; and Frank McKenzie, of Tallahassee, Ala., were in this company. Towards the latter end of the trip, Joseph Schwing fell in love and deserted the rough riders.

J. W. Buchanan, of Grenada, Miss., or Buck as everybody called him, was one of the few fellows who got into the papers. At Salt Lake city he was kodaked as the "Rip Roaring Cuss from Mississippi." Buck goes out after all the fun in sight. He "roasted" the New Englanders about their broad r's and baked beans, discussed both politics and religion contrary to the rules, explored, fished, climbed, orated, romped, joked and jollied at all stages of the game. At Salt Lake he wired his wife that he was thinking of marrying a Mormon, but she turned the laugh on him by wiring her consent and adding "Everybody is happy at home." Buck is one of the characters of the association and the fact that he came within four votes of being elected vice-president, without effort on his part, attested his popularity in the association.

Lon V. Sanders, of the Sanders Engraving Co., St. Louis, was one of the "Konstant Kodak Klan." Mr. Sanders was left in charge of the car that took the Black Hills trip. He and his wife, with H. F. Stapel and wife and Omar D. Gray and wife made up a Missouri delegation that did not "have to be shown."

Altogether the party was a pleasant crowd of pencil pushers and here is hoping that we may meet them all next year at St. Louis.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C.W. Hellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Huntington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." THE NEWCOMER.

Lucky If He Escapes Harsher Fate Than a Nickname.

The instinctive attitude toward strangers of people in self-contained communities, in which there is but little coming and going, is one of hostility, says the London Globe. Travels of this feeling—a survival, surely, from the days of the tribal or village community—are still to be found even in many places where the immense increased facilities for intercommunication have broken up and almost abolished the old, isolated modes of life. There are still old world rural parts where those who come from or belong to other districts are generally styled "furriners." But this is really a survival of medievalism.

Connected with the old hostile attitude toward the outsider is the custom, which is found all over the world of dubbing the newcomer, whether to country or town, or profession, with a nickname, humorous or satirical. In the far west of America or Canada he who comes fresh from the east or from Europe is a "tenderfoot." Originally, no doubt, the name was almost literally true. A backwoodsman, or frontiersman, is a tolerably tough and hardened individual, and a newcomer from more civilized parts would probably find he deserved the name of "tenderfoot" before he had been long on the tramp. But, of course, the epithet soon gained a wiser application, and became a label for a fresh arrival of any kind. Another western name of like meaning was "pilgrim."

In India, for many a long year, the newcomer has usually been known as a "griffin," usually shortened to "griff," but no one has yet been able to explain the origin of the term. As a "griffin" is naturally given to the ways of the country, it is not surprising to find the word thinned into a verb, as shown in the following fragment of an Anglo-Indian ballad:

He doesn't no skin
To griff a buster, feller—pin English—
(take him up)

In the Middle Peninsula newly imported Chinese coolies are known as "sinkeys," but why we cannot say. Australia, of course, has its own nicknames for the newcomer. When he arrives fresh from the old country he is a "new chum" or a "lime-juice," and usually bears the marks of his newness thick upon him in the shape of his clothes, the tone of his talk, and the like. If he goes inland, or up country, as the Australians would say, and settles down on a sheep or cattle station, so as to get practically acquainted with the work on a large run, and thus learn the details essential to successful sheep or cattle farming, he is known at first as a "colonial experience" or a "jackaroo."

The application of nicknames is not confined to fresh immigrants in any country or colony. The habit is found in existence in many other directions. In military slang a recruit is a "rooky," and many other occupational have parallel nicknames for the novices, the raw hand, the greenhorn who is not necessarily a simpleton. "Greenhorn" itself was used in the seventeenth century as a name for a raw recruit while "greener" is commonly used in London at the present time among sweating employers as a term for newly arrived foreigners in seasonal work, who are just the material to serve the sweater's purpose. At English universities, again, the undergraduate in his first year has been known for centuries as a "freshman," which recent Oxford slang, with its idiomatic turn for making "er" a universal termination, turns into "fresher."

Across the Atlantic fresherman is similarly used, while a second-year student is dubbed a "sophomore," a name unknown on this side. In an American university, when a man enters college in the "sophomore" year, having passed his freshman year elsewhere, he gets the portentious name of "freshman-sophomore," naturally shortened into the charming locution, "fresh-soph." At German universities men, rejoice in a variety of strange names. In one of the chapters of Longfellow's "Hyperion" the reader may make the acquaintance of the Nasty-Foxes, otherwise fresh men; Brander, or second-term men; mossy-heads, old ones and prizes of twilight. Most of them, sound delightfully meaningless, which is one of the recognized beauties of cant terms.

She Emphatically Denies That Her Child is Heir to the Estate at Whitehall.

Lexington, Ky., July 28.—Mrs. Dora Clay Brock says the report that she will claim that her six-year-old son, Cassius Marcellus Clay, of Whitehall, who died last week, leaving a will which the children will contest, is untrue, she says she never occupied the reputation of wife to General Clay. "He loved me and I tried to love him. He looked upon me as a child and cared for me as he would his own daughter," she said to-day. "He bought me toys and candy and sat me on his knee and told me stories of his great work in behalf of the negro before the war and of his great times in Russia, where he was a favorite in the court. "He would talk to me by the hour when we were alone and finally he would send me off to bed, retiring in his own room. Sometimes in the night he would come to see if I was comfortable and spread blankets over me."
